To Beacon Subscribers,

On Behalf of the entire Beacon staff, I would like to sincerely apologize for the mistake that was made when the January Beacons were mailed. Some of you may have noticed that the insert (pages 3 & 4) was missing. And for that We are truly sorry.

Fortunately , every month the Beacon is also posted on the Intergroup web site at aaworcester.org. So in the highly unlikely event that such an unfortunate error is made again you can still be informed and up to date on what's going on. Thank you very much for your continued support.

Yours in service

John G.

Traditions Checklist

These questions were originally published in the AA Grapevine in conjunction with a series on the Twelve Traditions that began in November 1969 and ran through October 1971. While they were originally intended primarily for individual use, many AA groups have since used them as a basis for wider discussion.

Step 2 : Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

Tradition 2 : For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority — a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.

TRADITIONS CHECK LIST :

1. Do I criticize or do I trust and support my group officers, AA committees, and office workers? Newcomers? Old-timers?
2. Am I absolutely trustworthy, even in secret, with AA Twelfth Step jobs or other AA responsibility?
3. Do I look for credit in my AA jobs? Praise for my AA ideas?
4. Do I have to save face in group discussion, or can I yield in good spirit to the group conscience and work cheerfully along with it?
5. Although I have been sober a few years, am I still willing to serve my turn at AA chores?
6. In group discussions, do I sound off about matters on which I have no experience and little knowledge?
